

Figure 7-7

This figure shows the final check on the points after adjusting for both the “same night” and “night-to-night” non-formal errors. The final calculated error adequately matches the gaussian fits to the histograms of deviations from the means from the comparison star light curves.

The number of data points used to derive each point in the lower right graph is given near the bottom of this graph.